BOURBON MAKES THIRD LIBERTY LOAN SUCCESSFUL.

With the same enthusiasm which contributed in no small degree to the success of the Second Liberty Loan, in which Bourbon county oversubscribed her allotment the good old county again "went over the top" in the campaign for her allotment of $380,000 in the Third Liberty Loan, which came to a close with a monster mass meeting at the court house Saturday afternoon.

Gratifying reports had been received all through the week from the various workers engaged in soliciting for the fund, and it was deemed a fitting close to have a big meeting at the court house, where all could see and hear. Committees got busy perfecting arrangements, and when the hour arrived for the meeting another record-breaking crowd filled the big Circuit Court room, while an overflow meeting was held on the steps near the front entrance.

The city was gayly decorated with banners and bunting festooning the occasion, which was ushered in by a big parade, headed by the Paris police department, followed by the Boys' Band from the I. O. O. F. Home, at Lexington, ambulances, Boy Scouts, city and county officials, in autos, the fire department and scores of citizens in automobiles.

The parade halted at the court house plaza, where the Boys' Band gave a concert of patriotic airs. The crowd that had gathered by this time exceeded the anticipations of all who had figured on a large crowd. By a proclamation issued by Mayor January nearly all the business houses in the city were closed, while employer and employee attended the big meeting.

The meeting was presided over by Mr. John T. Collins, who, in a brief and appropriately-worded speech, stated the object and aims of the call for the meeting and urgent necessity of the success of the Third Liberty Loan. At the conclusion of Mr. Collins' remarks the recently-organized Community Chorus, composed of some of the best musical talent in the city and county, under the direction of Mr. A. L. Boatright, rendered a program of patriotic airs. The invocation was delivered by Rev. Dr. Orr, the venerable Methodist minister.

Rev. Mr. Orr was followed by Mr. J. R. Bush, of Lexington, who was introduced to the audience by Chairman Collins. Mr. Bush stated that while he had been slated for a talk he wanted to give way for two really good men, who had a message to deliver to the audience that would be far more interesting than anything he could tell them. He then introduced Lieutenant A. J. McIntyre, of Sydney, Nova Scotia, a member of the Royal Highlanders Guard of Canada, who in a most graphic manner, told of his experiences on the battlefield at Vimy Ridge, Ypres and other places. Lieut. McIntyre was in the service with the Forty-second Battalion. He enlisted as a private in August, 1914, and has been wounded three times, at St. Eloi, at Ypres and at Vimy Ridge. His right arm was shattered and the stump is carried in a sling. He was successively promoted to corporal, then to sergeant and then to lieutenant. He spent seventeen months in the trenches, and his description of warfare was truly a substantiation of the old saying that "War is hell."

Lieut. McIntyre was followed by his comrade, Lieut. A. E. Lamond, of Galt, Ontario, Canada, who, in an equally thrilling address, narrated his experiences in warfare, which he said could never be described as a pleasure party. Lieut. Lamond was in service with the First Canadian Battalion, and was wounded in action at the taking of Fresnoy, on May 3, 1917. He lost a leg in this fight, his left leg being carried away below the knee by the explosion of a shell. His left lung was pierced by a bullet and he sustained numerous other wounds. Both these young men were sent out through the Fourth Federal Reserve District in the interest of the Third Liberty Loan, and they made a tremendous impression everywhere by their earnest manner and graphic stories. They addressed an overflow meeting on the court house steps while Rev. Dr. Wilkinson, of Lexington, was speaking.

Rev. Wilkinson, whose address at a previous meeting here will ever be remembered, made a characteristic address on the Liberty Loan, and impressed his hearers as forcibly as he did before. Rev. Wilkinson is one of the foremost speakers on the platform to-day, and his address here Saturday was a rare treat for those who had the good fortune to hear him.

It was announced at the meeting that Bourbon county had raised a total of a little more than $450,000, of which amount the Woman's Committee, under the leadership of Miss Kate Alexander, chairman, raised nearly half, of $225,000. Before the meeting closed an additional $15,250 was raised. It is thought that the belated returns that are yet to come

PROF KEITH ADDRESSES BOURBON COUNTY DELEGATES.

Prof. Charles A. Keith, a graduate of Oxford, and head of the history and civics department of the Eastern Normal School at Richmond, delivered a most interesting and patriotic address to the teachers of the Bourbon county schools at the court house in this city Saturday morning.

Prof. Keith spoke in a most impressive manner, his subject being, "The Challenge of Childhood." He called to mind the responsibility of the teacher in directing the youth of the land. He showed by several illustrations that the safety of individuals as well as of nations depended upon the proper guidance in childhood. He showed that the horrible atrocities that are being enacted in Germany to-day are due for the most part to the misdirection of the youth of Germany for the past forty years by inhuman leaders. He reminded the teachers of the importance of remaining at their posts of duty in these times when other more lucrative lines of work are beckoning them away from the teaching profession, and that many things serve to inspire one to keep on teaching, one of the chief incentives being the challenge of childhood in America.

CHAIRMAN RESIGNS.

Mr. John T. Collins, who has been a capable and hard-working official as Federal Food Administrator for Bourbon county, has resigned the position on account of his numerous pressing business interests demanding all his time. Pending the appointment of his successor, Mr. Lawrence D. Mitchell, of North Middletown, is Acting Food Administrator. Dr. C. C. Fisher, president of the Millersburg College, is Assistant Food Administrator.

PRESIDENT WILSON'S REPLY.

The White House.

Washington, Feb. 19, 1918.

My Dear Mr. Secretary: I have examined with care the memoranda and letters which you transmitted to me with your letter of the 15th. I fully share the view you express regarding the importance of the public-service utilities as a part of our national equipment, especially in war time. It is essential that these utilities should be maintained at their maximum efficiency and that everything reasonably possible should be done with that end in view. I hope that State and local authorities, where they have not already done so, will, when the facts are properly laid before them, respond promptly to the necessities of the situation.

I shall be glad to have you communicate with the local authorities whenever the information in your possession suggests that such a course is desirable and in the national interest.

Cordially yours,
WOODROW WILSON.
Hon. William G. McAdoo,
Secretary of the Treasury.

NEW MANAGER.

Mr. Thomas Herndon, who for the past three years, has been manager of the Cumberland telephone office at Pineville, Ky., has been appointed Manager of the Cumberland's exchanges in Millersburg and Carlisle, dividing time between the two offices.

from workers will make a total for Bourbon county of at least $500,000.

Mr. J. Will Stoll, of Lexington, Chairman of this district, was present, and presented the Honor Flag, which the county had been awarded as being one of the many oversubscribing the allotment. The meeting closed with the singing of "America" by the Community Chorus, and an inspiring rendition of a patriotic air by the Boys' Band.

Bourbon county has now participated in the floating of three Liberty Loan Bond campaigns, and in all three has made a record that establishes firmly its right to be known as one of the banner counties of the State. In this campaign the county stood second in the list.

Lieuts. McIntyre and Lamond were given an impromptu reception after the adjournment of the meeting. Both wore their officers' uniforms. They said they are ready to enter the service again as soon as their recovery will admit if their government will sanction it. They both expressed their sense of appreciation of the hospitality extended them, and that they found Kentucky altogether charming and that they would like to come back some time to revisit the State.

Chairman Stoll stated in Lexington Saturday night that complaints had come in from almost all the counties in the district that all the farmers are not doing their full share in the loan. "If all the farmers in the district were as patriotic as those of Bourbon county," said Mr. Stoll, "there would be absolutely no cause for complaint from that source."

FUEL ADMINISTRATOR SOUNDS NOTE OF WARNING.

The following communication has been received from Mr. James H. Thompson, Federal Fuel Administrator for Bourbon county, in which he warns the public of the serious coal shortage, and advises them to get their orders in now:

"Paris, Ky., April 15, 1918.
To the Public:

"The United States Fuel Administration, in co-operation with the Director-General of Railroads, announces a zone system to govern the distribution of bituminous coal during the coal year beginning April 1, 1918. Under the zone system coal will be distributed to consuming territory under restriction that will avoid as far as possible waste of transportation facilities, but nevertheless consistent with the maintenance of the greatest possible production and a proper coal supply to all coal users.

"Consumers in Kentucky will suffer a serious shortage next winter unless they begin to fill their bins at once, and continue to accumulate their winter's supply during the summer. The mines in this State can fill the normal requirements of these consumers if they are kept running every day of the week, winter and summer. Let every consumer order twelve months' supply of coal without delay, and as fast as possible.

"JAS. H. THOMPSON,
Chairman Bourbon County Fuel Committee."

It should not be in when you call you may have one of the other county officers let you in my office and you will find all blanks necessary in a census pad on the table with the name of your district on the cover for you.

LITTLE ROCK COLORED SCHOOL RAISES $110.65.

At an enthusiastic rally held in the Little Rock colored Grade School, which is one of the best in the Bluegrass, under the Superintendence of Prof. C. T. Cook, the sum of $110.65 was raised, which will be devoted to school improvement purposes.

I shall be glad to have you communicate with the local authorities whenever the information in your possession suggests that such a course is desirable and in the national interest.

WOODROW WILSON.

APPOINTED DIRECTOR OF BOYS' WORKING RESERVE.

Mr. Philo P. Dix, of Louisville, Federal State Director of the United States Boys' Working Reserve, has notified Mr. Z. L. Wilcox, Secretary of the Bourbon County Y. M. C. A., of his appointment as director of the Reserves for this county. County Superintendent of Schools J. B. Cawood will be associated with Mr. Wilcox in the work, also the teachers of the various county and city schools.

The purpose of the organization is to secure enrollment of all students in the schools between the ages of sixteen and twenty for the vacation period. The boys are to employ their time in some kind of productive and industrial work during the vacation, for the advancement of the agricultural interest of the country, as well as work for the Government in the various plants of the country.

When a student enrolls he will be given a button to wear and a membership certificate, and after he has worked eight hours daily for thirty-six days he will be presented by the Government with a bronze badge of honor.

REAL ESTATE DEALS.

Through the Bourbon Realty Company, former Attorney P. A. Thompson, of Paris, now Lieutenant in the United States Army, sold his home on Stoner Avenue, to Mrs. T. P. Galway for a price said to have been about $3,400.

Mr. B. F. Judy disposed of the old log building in North Middleton, to Mr. Edward Simms, who will remove the material to his Kalape farm and use them in erecting a bungalow. This old house which was the property of the Rice heirs, was over one hundred years old, and one of the most ancient structures in Bourbon county.

WARNING TO FISHERMEN!

The impression has wrongfully gotten out that the law recently passed by the Legislature gives fishermen the right to sein or gig in streams of Bourbon county. Such is not the case. The law applies to navigable streams that are locked and dammed, and does not positively apply to small streams throughout the State. Warning is hereby served that violators of the law will be punished to the very limit. It will be wise to take heed in time and save yourself a heavy fine. By order of the Kentucky Game and Fish Commission.

Sergt. Richard P. ("Rick") Thomas, formerly of Paris, who is now stationed at Camp Shelby, Hattiesburg, Miss., as a member of the infantry service, has returned to the camp after a visit to relatives in Mt. Sterling.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hutchcraft, of Paris, received a cablegram last week from their son, Lieut. Reuben P. Hutchcraft, Jr., containing merely the one word, "Well." Lieut. Hutchcraft went into the trenches in France with his regiment on February 23. Nothing further has been heard from him since he cabled his parents.

James Cain, of Paris, who is a member of the American Expeditionary forces now in France, wrote his parents in March that he was well and hearty, and told of the presents he would bring back from France to "the kids" when he returned. Nothing further has been heard from him.

Corporal T. E. Shannon, of Paris who has been stationed at Camp McArthur, near Waco, Texas, has been transferred to Fort Omaha, Nebraska. Corporal Shannon entered the aviation service at Camp Zachary Taylor shortly after arriving there with the Bourbon county contingent.

Mr. Jos. J. Grosche, Master of Trains for this division of the L. & N., received a letter from his brother, Mr. Leo Grosche, telling of his arrival in France, as member of the U. S. Army Railway Signal Corps. Mr. Grosche stated that the trip was uneventful, "but," he adds, "talking about those Charlie Chaplin stunts, you should have seen me trying to eat from one of those swinging tables, which fly back and forth every time the ship rolls to either side. Charlie couldn't do half what I did."

MITCHELL & BLAKEMORE
Spring Styles in Netleton Shoes.

IN THE SERVICE OF THEIR COUNTRY.

Mrs. Ernest Harris, of this city, received information yesterday to the effect that her son, Ensign Harold Harris, who is stationed on board the U. S. S. "Panther," somewhere off the coast of France, had just been promoted to the rank of warrant officer, with pay of $2,400 per year. This position ranks next to that of a commissioned officer. The Panther is a "mother ship" or supply ship for one of Uncle Sam's big battleships now doing naval duty overseas.

Cornelius (Buddy) James, of Paris, who left Paris recently for his station after a visit to his mother, Mrs. Mollie James, and family, has started on his ship, The Covington, on the fourth trip overseas. The Covington is one of a fleet of nine transports carrying 5,000 troops each to France. These transports are guarded by a convoy of battleships, torpedo boats and destroyers.

Private Lawrence H. Hill returned Sunday morning to Camp Shelby, at Hattiesburg, Miss., after a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Hill, in this city. Sergt. Newsom Keller, who is in the same company in the Signal Corps with Private Hill, will probably return to Camp Shelby to-morrow. Sergt. Keller has applied for an extension of his furlough, on account of his recent illness.

Lieut. Lawrence Lavin, who has been spending a furlough visit in this city with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Lavin, returned Saturday to Camp Sherman, near Chillicothe, Ohio, to rejoin his regiment. Lieut. Lavin was one of the stars on the Paris High School athletic team, and makes a fine-looking soldier.

John M. Stuart, Owen Gibson, Willis Jacoby and Sello Wollstein, all of Paris, presented themselves Friday to the Bourbon County Board of Exemption as volunteers from Bourbon county in the call for selectives in the auto-mechanical class, and were accepted. They were sent to Indianapolis yesterday, where they are to report for service. They will receive two months' training in their duties. At the expiration of that time they will probably be transferred to France for duty on the firing lines. On Sunday afternoon Mr. Wollstein was given the Second and Third degree by the members of Rathbone Lodge, K. of P., he having previously taken the rank of Page. The initiation ceremonies were held at the lodge room in the Wilson building at Main and Third streets, in the presence of a large audience.

Baldwin Woods, who is a member of the Dr. Barrow Base Hospital Unit No. 40, at Camp Zachary Taylor, was a guest of his mother, Mrs. Jack Woods, and family, on Eighth street, Saturday and Sunday.

C. O. Hinton, of Paris, who is engaged in army Y. M. C. A. work at Camp Zachary Taylor, and at the artillery practice range at West Point, Ky., is spending a few days with his family in this city.

"FATHER AND SON" BANQUET AT THE Y. M. C. A.

The Father and Son movement was given an added impetus last night at the Y. M. C. A., when about one hundred and fifty guests were present at a banquet designed to promote interest in the movement. Covers had been laid at the tables for that number, and there were no vacant places.</p

Watch Yourself!

Delays are dangerous where disease is concerned.

If you tire easily and are "all played out" don't dope yourself with so-called "tonics" and stimulants. See a doctor for weariness is usually the first sign of tuberculosis.

If you have indigestion don't deluge yourself with "stomach tablets." Even if they give relief, they do not remove the cause of your trouble.

If you are a little feverish in the afternoon, don't guess at the cause. Don't believe it is "just a little malaria." Undergo an examination.

If you spit blood, don't assume that it is from your gums or your throat. Probably it is not. Spitting blood is too important a matter to guess about. Find out the real cause.

If your are losing weight or are below your natural weight, there is some cause for it. Do not feed your stomach with oils and fats and beer and other fattening foods. Find out why a normal diet is not supplying your needs.

If you are nervous or have had a nervous breakdown, be sure there is not a physical cause—like tuberculosis—at the bottom of it. Nervousness is often the only sign of early tuberculosis.

A Patriotic Call For Nurses. The Lake Division of the American Red Cross has issued the following appeal:

Our Government must have many thousands for nurses before the close of 1918. Surgeon-General Gorgas has asked the Red Cross to enroll 5,000 registered nurses by June 1, for service overseas and in American cantonments. Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky are asked to supply 500. All Red Cross workers can aid the Government and the Lake Division Bureau of Nursing by giving wide public notice to this urgent need for nurses; urging physicians and individuals employing registered nurses to make it easy for the nurses to enroll. Many people are telling the nurses they can't be spared for Government service; pushing the home-care-of-the-sick work and influencing young girls to take up nursing courses; telling registered nurses that when they are in the Government service they are entitled to War Risk Insurance."

Oh, Yes, Many a Time.

Didjeeverhavenosuchweatherin April?"

Now these words came from between chattering teeth when the questioner put them to the questioner, and meant, in good old every day English, "Did you ever see such weather as this in April?" It came from between chattering teeth in a single jump, so to speak, for the speakers were standing on a street corner waiting for a dust cloud to pass.

You have no doubt heard this on many a street corner during the past spell of cold weather. Many a time we have experienced just such weather as this in April. We can recall, can we not, a deep snow on or about May 23rd, in 1895 or thereabouts. Strawberries were ripe in Kentucky then. The bluegrass was in bloom. The snow flattened out the bluegrass and lay heavily upon it for several hours. In the late afternoon when the snow melted, under a brilliant sky, strawberries were plucked for supper from where they had been hidden by the snow. The writer distinctly remembers seeing big red roses peeping out from a covering of three inches of snow. One of the heaviest hailstorms ever known fell in May, on the opening day of the old Bluegrass League baseball season!

The Short Skirted.

Formerly women wore clothes which left to surmise a great deal which is now open to discussion. There is nothing immoral or improper in short skirts. They were worn in Europe by the peasant girls hundreds of years ago, and are still worn by that class. The more seen of well turned ankles the less thought about them possibly, but the fashion of the day is just a trifling upon those who would not secure a first row position in a musical chorus.

The feminine foot is not always as small in fact as in poetry and fiction and family tradition. It is far better to let it have room. It is better for the health and the happiness of those underpinned by it, but short skirts do turn harsh uncompromising light upon the foot which is not small or well proportioned, and upon which the ankle is fat where it ought to be slender.

We've Seen It Here!

When we see so many young men with their hair parted in the middle and hanging down over their foreheads so as to obscure every trace of intellect and so many young women with their hair all frizzily-frowzily and flopping around over their faces in fifty different directions, we are not surprised that the followers of Darwin are now positively sure that mankind descended from monkeys.

And It Is Even So.

An old timer who has never known anything but work, with many consequent happy vacations in between, talking the other day of the recent order regarding easy livers and vagrants, said to THE NEWS man: "Young fellow, work is nothing but a great blessing in disguise. You cannot see how but some day you will say that you were fortunate in your own younger days that you were made to work, and work hard, too. You cannot get the power to do things save by doing them. Look over the successful men you know in Paris. Every blamed one of them knew what it was to work hard when they were boys. Get their history. Nearly everyone was compelled to work when these fellows were boys. They toughened their muscles by hard work and sharpened their brains by looking out for themselves. The loafers are the ones who really have the hardest jobs in the world."

The Farmer Independent.

From almost every viewpoint the farming element in this county, as well as in other counties, is in better shape now, save for the shortage of labor caused by war conditions, than at any period since the Civil War. Most people own their homes and little farms; more are free from the yoke of bondage imposed by burdensome debts; big tobacco crops have helped the county in many ways; more are becoming independent each year by making a comfortable living for their families; and more are waking up to the necessity of giving their children better educational advantages. Taken all in all, prosperity and contentment seem to prevail throughout the county. Let progress still be the watchword.

Buy At Home.

When you want any article of merchandise buy it of your home dealer whom you know to be a reputable business man, so that the profit he gets from the sale may come back to help enrich the community. Send your money away from home only for what you cannot buy at home at all. Home talent, home labor, home industry, home capital, and home pleasures are things that should be fostered, encouraged and patronized.

BIG OLLIE JAMES WANTS TO BE SENATOR AGAIN.

Ollie M. James, Kentucky's senior Senator, has formally announced his candidacy for re-election to the United States Senate, subject to the action of the Democratic primary, to be held in August.

His formal statement is merely in line with intentions previously well understood. Senator James is concluding his first term, which has brought him well forward in the ranks of his Democratic colleagues. On the floor he has been the consistent defender of the administration and frequently he has spoken with the direct authority of the President.

Mr. James' campaign for re-election will stress the patriotic issues and lay particular emphasis on the close relations existing between him and the President.

New Flash-Lamp.

A practicable flash-lamp without a battery has been invented by utilizing a tiny magneto-generator driven by a spring and clockwork.

Lloyd George has openly challenged the House of Commons to get a new government if it did not like his administration, and so far the Commons shows no inclination to change.

HOW FRENCH WOMEN SAVE

Their Natural Talent for Economy Has Done Much to Help Withstand Hardships of War.

The French housewife, with her native talent for economy, has saved France up to the present time fully as much as have those fighting in the trenches. Good advice has been given to Americans, if they will only take it.

Rich women who have had many servants now have few. Expenses are cut all along the line. Simple meals and simple habits replace elaborate ones. A lady buys clothes, but for orphans and refugees, not for herself.

Poor women, who must reduce simplicity to frugality—what do they do? They make one sou buy two sou's worth by watching every centime. This, for countless women in Paris, means getting up at five o'clock in the morning to get a choice of things at the great market, Les Halles; walking long distances to go where things cost not so much as nearer home; walking instead of riding; keeping vigilant watch on the venders' carts along the street for good values; turning plain foods into attractive dishes by a well-flavored sauce and a garnishing which costs nothing.

In the old residential quarters of Paris there are hundreds of women of aristocratic connections and moderate means who before the war had several servants and who now have none, or perhaps one. And to women of all degrees of wealth there could scarcely be a more interesting study than to see how these gentlewomen and their humble helpers give a charming touch to hard times.

A representative household is one where the regular income has suddenly stopped, but leaving a little more than the small government allowance. The ingenuity of housekeeper and cook accomplishes wonders. In many a home butter may now be served once a week and perhaps with only one course.

Perhaps three large strawberries must suffice for each serving at dessert, but they will be served with a grace that makes the eating of them a pretty ceremonial. If gooseberries and currants are inexpensive they will combine remarkably with other berries for a compote. Perhaps dessert will be a spoonful of jelly with a simple little cake; or perhaps dessert will give way to cheese, taking on a new attractiveness on its plate of green leaves.—Leslie's Weekly.

Took Their Grain to Mill.

The report published in a Bridgeport newspaper that the owner of a grist mill at Sandy Hook, Conn., having secured a few bags of wheat, ground it up and sold it to his neighbors to be mixed with Western flour, the result being a cheaper material for bread, brings us back to the days of hardly more than a generation ago, when Northern farmers produced grain on their farms and had it ground in the neighboring grist mill, then an institution to be found within a few miles of every neighborhood. There was no indication in those days that the ground product of the grain, whether corn or wheat, was inferior to any produced elsewhere. But now with the advent of modern machinery our civilization seems to demand a flour from which every particle of nutritious gluten, so far as it tends to discolor the flour, is eliminated. As for home-grown, home-ground cornmeal, that is a rarity, known only to a few old-time epicures and secured by them with considerable difficulty. In the southern Appalachians, however, the old-time grist mill is still in use.—Providence Journal.

Eleven, by Actual Count.

An old toper started home one night in his normal condition, with a turkey which he had bought for his Christmas dinner.

The road was rough, and he fell several times over all sorts of obstructions in the path, dropping the turkey each time, but picking it up again.

Entering his house, he steadied himself as well as he could, and said to his wife:

"Here, wifey, I've brought you eleven turkeys."

"Eleven turkeys!" cried his wife. "I see but one."

"Nonsense, you're blind!" cried her good man. "Why, I fell down eleven times coming home, and I swear I picked up a turkey every time!"

Our idea of fortune is good fortune.

Powerful Exterminator.

In India and Australia a rat and rabbit exterminator was tested some time ago. It consists of an outer and inner metal shell, like one small egg in a larger one. In the outer shell is sulphuric acid, in the inner metal egg is dry cyanide of potash. The outer shell is filled with acid and placed in the rat hole or burrow, and all rat holes are tightly sealed. After an hour or so the acid eats into the cyanoide and turns loose a lot of deadly prussic acid gas.

Convenient Wrist Watch.

"I can't understand why the public make such a joke of the wrist watch," said the knut to the hardened sinner. "I'm sure it's a great convenience."

"Yes. With the old kind of watch I always had to unbutton my coat and fish in every one of my waistcoat pockets for it. Now I have to unbutton my coat, fish in every one of my waistcoat pockets, discover that the watch isn't there, push up my sleeve, and look at it. A great convenience!"

Taking Oil Stains From Concrete.

It has been found that oil stains on concrete floors may be removed by using a mixture of one pound of oxalic acid in three gallons of water, with enough wheat flour added to make a paste that can be applied with a brush. Allow the application to remain for two days, and then remove it with clean water and a scrubbing brush. A second application may be necessary in stubborn cases.

Oak First for Tables.

Oak was the wood first used in tables then walnut came into general use in the middle of the seventeenth century. An early form of table was the chair table, convenient because it served the purpose of a seat when the top was lifted and stood against the side of the room. But gradually the table took its present form and use. It became the custom to leave the board upon the trestle instead of removing both, and in time the piece of furniture was called the table.

Some Early Candles.

The candles of the Romans were composed of string surrounded either by wax or pitch. Splinters of wood, covered with fat, were used by the English poorer classes in 1300.

SUNDAY, APRIL 21, TO BE LIBERTY LOAN SUNDAY.

A signed letter from Secretary of the Treasury William G. McAdoo now being sent to 14,000 clergymen throughout the country has requested April 21 to be officially and nationally observed as Liberty Loan Sunday.

There are about 41,000,000 members in continental United States, and these are looked after spiritually by more than 150,000 ministers. More and more it is becoming apparent to these churches that their very existence as free bodies moving within a free State, is one of the things at stake in this war.

The time has come for every American church, whose freedom to worship according to the dictates of conscience was bought with precious blood in the Revolutionary War, to line up with the American Government that has assured and protected that liberty these 140 years or more. Secretary McAdoo is making his appeal as a God-fearing American to the pastors to bring their influence nationally speaking, to bear upon their flocks in the great drive now under way for the successful flotation of Third Liberty Bonds.

The Secretary has chosen a strategic time for a national Liberty Loan Sunday, which will be two weeks before the end of the National Liberty Loan campaign. It is just about that time in a campaign like the present one, when zealous people are likely to be overconfident and let up on their efforts to put the Third Liberty Loan over. The clergy are to be an important factor in urging their folk onward and upward in the good fight. They can devote entire sermon periods to the issue involved. They can get behind Liberty Committees in their parishes, to see that they have rounded up the slackers and laggards, showing them their Christian duty in the matter.

That Secretary McAdoo's letter will have its desired effect is a foregone conclusion.

PARIS EVIDENCE FOR PARIS PEOPLE.

The Statements of Paris Residents Are Surely More Reliable Than Those of Utter Strangers.

Home testimony is real proof. Public statements of Paris people carry real weight.

What a friend or neighbor says compels respect.

The word of one whose home is far away invites your doubts.

Here's a Paris man's statement.

And it's for Paris people's benefit.

Such evidence is convincing.

That's the kind of proof that backs Doan's Kidney Pills.

J. W. Larkin, farmer, 431 High street, says: "I am only too glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, because I have at times had quite a bit of trouble with my back. Often, I had a dreadful ache across my kidneys and the kidney secretions were too frequent in passage. A box or so of Doan's Kidney Pills at these times has never failed to cure me of an attack."

Mr. Larkin is only one of many Paris people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches, if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy, ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Larkin had—the remedy backed by home testimony, 60 cents at all stores. THE RED CROSS A MIGHTY FACTOR IN EUROPE.

A broad, our boys will find can-teens serving a million meals monthly to French and American soldiers; warehouses crammed with materials situated all along the French and Italian lines, at seaports, and at places where they are going to fight; institutions for the care of consumptives, for the care of children, and the re-education of maimed men; supply organizations reaching thirty-five hundred hospitals; gangs of workers restoring devastated farms and villages—the whole served by a motor transport which employs hundreds of trucks outside of the equipment of the army is the greatest system of its kind in the world.

Outside of these armies, indeed they will find that the Red Cross to day is one of the most potent, single agencies in Europe.—Francis B. Bellamy in The Red Cross Magazine for May.

MISS SPRING BONNET IN ANNUAL TRIUMPH

Mr. First Robin does again. It's an annual contest—this race between Mr. First Robin and Miss Spring Bonnet, as to which shall appear first. And in 1918, as most seasons of the past, Mr. Red Breast is not seen until days after Miss Spring Bonnet has come and conquered.

Proof that Miss Spring Bonnet has again won the early stakes may be had by gazing in the shop windows.

At the top is a pink hat of bronze colored hinska straw with a twist and a bustle of peacock green silk. The second hat is a four-piece crown construction whose black taffeta broad brim is enlivened by a festoon of velvet daisies, poppies, and blue cornflowers. At the base is a hinska turban of bronze straw and a wreathlet of berries.

MRS. GIBSON TELLS GRAPHIC STORY OF EXPERIENCE.

A magnificent audience greeted Mrs. Ida M. Gibson, Thursday night, at the Opera House.

Mrs. Gibson is widely known as a representative newspaper woman, and her "Confessions of a Wife" have been read with great interest.

She is now a most enthusiastic worker in the Red Cross organization and spent the past winter in Europe studying war conditions from every possible standpoint. She says she is the only woman, or at least the only American woman, who has succeeded in reaching the trenches.

Mrs. Gibson is a woman of wonderful personality, splendid physique and magnetism. She tells the story of her thrilling experience in a charmingly simple style, yet with great force and power. Her tailored cloth Red Cross costume with French cape is very attractive, and with it she wears strong boots and a close fitting hat with no ornament except a graceful tassel on the right and la croix rouge in front.

In her opening sentence Mrs. Gibson told her audience not to let any one make them think for one moment that we are not at war with the German people, for we are.

"You have been told that you are at war with the Kaiser, but I want to tell you you are at war with the German people who have been preparing for this for forty years; and not only with those over there, but with the despicable Germans in America who are acting as spies."

These she denounced in the strongest language.

Before going to Europe, the speaker said, she had been told that every one who goes to this war is convinced that "there is a God—as sure as Hell!"

She said she had learned to believe "there is a Hell—as sure as God"—for she had seen it, in the pinched features of starving children, in the helpless look in the eyes of women, in the destruction of magnificent churches, treasures of art and wealth, in the horrors of trench life, in bursting shell and murderous bomb; and she had heard it in the infernal din of battle, the roar of guns and the moans of the wounded and dying.

The speaker graphically told of her difficult journey on foot, one dark night, to reach the trenches, dressed in riding breeches, heavy boots, a Sammey overcoat and tin hat, stumbling over rocks and rough places, almost falling into shell holes, she and her protectors finally reached the trenches. Here, while handing out soup from the soup kitchen to the soldiers a bomb exploded a few feet in front of the party, wounding several.

One poor fellow had one side of his face completely torn away and while taking his bowl of soup suddenly crumpled up and died at Mrs. Gibson's feet. Another who was wounded in the back of the head came up babbling in his delirium and thinking the little hand in the Sammey overcoat was that of his boy, died holding her hand and talking of "me petit fils."

Mrs. Gibson gave an interesting account of the "children's convoy"—a long train of French orphans that arrived in Paris early one winter morning. The windows were filled with little faces and every child was shouting, "Vive la France!" They marched to the place provided for them singing bravely, and when asked about their fathers the answer invariably was "Il est morte," or "Il est la guerre." For this is absolutely true that every man in France who is not too old or too feeble, is either in the war or dead because of the war.

Mrs. Gibson was privileged to have interviews with General Pershing and President Poincaré, as well as other prominent figures in France, and quotes them as saying unqualifiedly that the American Red Cross is the greatest constructive agency in the world, doing more good than any other organization that ever existed.

The speaker urged every woman to work for the Red Cross more earnestly than ever, either sewing, or knitting or making surgical dressings, adding with emphasis and truth that every woman who does not devote at least a portion of her time each week to this work is a SLACKER!

The speaker concluded her wonderful address with a glowing tribute to the American soldiers, complimenting them as being the cleanest, the strongest, the straightest and the manliest soldiers on the face of the earth, and said they would stick to their post just as long and just as bravely as the French or the British.

Mrs. Gibson has a son in France and closed with a pathetic yet brave quotation from one of his letters.

Altogether the address was enjoyed as much as any that has been given in Paris.

Hon. C. M. Thomas presided over the meeting, introducing the speaker and announcing the order of exercises. The invocation was pronounced by Rev. J. J. Rice, and music was furnished by an orchestra of five pieces, and the High School chorus, who sang "America," "Keep the Home Fires Burning" and "Over There."

AN AMERICAN PEACE.

There can be no peace with honor or safety to ourselves or to posterity, except a just peace, and there can and will be no other peace. Work for peace accomplishes nothing but the hampering of our effort, the delay of the real peace, and a greater toll of death of America's fighting men. Our duty is to work for a just and righteous peace, and to work or speak for any other peace is aid and comfort to Germany—inspiration and disloyalty to our boys in France.

A thoroughly systematized plan and three days of concentrated effort resulted in a magnificent victory for the woman's committee of the Third Liberty Loan. Should Bourbon county's contribution reach the half million mark, Messrs. Charles and Carlile Wilmot, of this city, have received information from Salt Lake City, Utah, to the effect that gold, silver and copper in commercial quantities had been found on the property of the Mid-West Liberty Oil and Gas Co., at Munday, Texas. The find was made while a party of drillers were at work sinking a well for water on the company's oil properties three miles west of Munday, which is seventy miles southwest of Wichita Falls.

The find was inspected by a party of Salt Lake capitalists, who declared that, while they would go ahead with the development of the oil property, they would also develop the mineral end. Samples of the ores were sent to an assay office, where they were reported as being rich, the little bundle of clay assaying $4.50 in gold, $8.00 in silver, and a little less than .5 of an ounce per cent. of copper, or a total of $13 a ton.

This company has oil holdings in Kentucky, Kansas and Texas. They will go ahead with the oil development of their 5,000-acres leases in Texas, but will also make an extended investigation of the mineral prospects.

Mr. Thomas Wilmot, of Paris, is Secretary of the Mid-West Liberty Oil & Gas Co. The company announced that being amply able to finance their own development work they would not make a stock proposition.

KENTUCKY WHEAT CROP

The prospect for a wheat crop in Kentucky is better this spring than it has been for years. With an unusually large acreage of wheat (652,000) this State also shows at present a remarkably good condition of the crop, being 100 per cent. compared to a condition of 65 per cent. this time last year and a ten-year average condition April 1 of 84 per cent.

Last spring Kentucky had an acreage of 850,000 compared to the 952,000 acres this spring. Of that 850,000 acres 100,000 acres had to be abandoned before the harvest last summer because of poor condition of the crop, while the prospects now indicate that there will be comparatively little of the 952,000 acres sown last fall that will be abandoned before harvest this summer, unless specially unfavorable conditions should develop.—State Journal.

UNHURT IN BATTLE, IS KILLED BY FALSE TEETH.

An amazing instance of what chance may do to a man is afforded by the case of Albert Crome, of London, who enlisted two years ago, was trained and sent to France, where he spent fifteen months participating in a continuous series of desperate fights and military adventures.

He never was wounded, but became ill and was sent home on leave to recuperate. On his first night in England he was awakened suddenly, swallowed his false teeth and died.

Air flying seems to be particularly dangerous around Memphis.

this woman's committee will have solicited 53% of the total amount.

SUIT AGAINST EXECUTORS OF F.
J. MILLET ESTATE.

County Attorney D. D. Cline has instituted suit against the Mechanics Bank & Trust Company, of Knoxville, Tenn., executors of the estate of the late Mr. Pat J. Millett for back taxes amounting to about $5,000 for six years prior to 1917.

The suit is based on the claim that Mr. Millett, who owned a valuable farm near Paris, was a resident of Bourbon County, and not of Tennessee as is claimed by the executors of the will.

Attorney E. M. Dickson, representing the executors of the Millett estate, and County Attorney D. D. Cline, for Bourbon County, called the case for trial before Judge Batterson yesterday.

Having prepared the suit as County Attorney in 1917, Judge Batterson declined to sit in the case and the attorneys promptly selected Attorney R. C. Talbott, of Paris, to preside. Owing to the fact that Mr. Talbott's brother, former Sheriff W. F. Talbott, was formerly connected with the case, Attorney Talbott declined to hear the case. Later Attorney Dickson and County Attorney Cline selected Judge George R. Hunt, of Lexington, and he will call the case for trial next Thursday.

HENS SHOULD NOT BE HURRIED TO MARKET.

"A rush of too many fowls to market as soon as the restriction against selling laying hens is removed, may result in food losses," says the United States Department of Agriculture. "Think twice before selling a hen that is still laying. Green food is becoming more plentiful and the demand for eggs continues. Universal marketing of fowls may react on prices as well as cause spoilage of dressed poultry."

ON THE RIGHT TRACK.

The Maysville Daily Bulletin says: "Mayor E. B. January and Chief of Police Link, of Paris, Ky., have issued a warning to all able-bodied men in Paris to comply with the new State law, which is to the effect that he shall work thirty-six hours out of every week regardless of his wealth or position. While this is going to work a hardship upon some of the gentlemen of ease, the officials declare that the law will be strictly enforced against persons in all stations of life."

THE WEATHER.

The weather man relented Sunday and yesterday and sent us two really pleasant and delightful days, following the visitation last week of March weather when freezing temperature was recorded. The warm sunshine brought people out by scores and the automobile traffic through the city was unusually heavy.

The weather prediction for the Ohio Valley for this week is as follows: Fair first of week except showers in east portion, temperature above normal middle of week, fair and warmer; end of week, showers with higher temperature.

FARMERS BUSY.

The return of seasonable weather has given the farmers a chance to speed up in their work, and as a result things are humming on the farm. Spring plowing, often interrupted by heavy rains and unseasonable weather, has been resumed, and many have finished their stunts.

The weather has not injured the tobacco beds as yet, and many beds throughout the county are showing an abundance of plants that are starting a nice growth. With a continuation of the seasonable weather they will be ready for transplanting in May. Wheat and rye are looking good.

MANY FLAGS ARE SOILED.

At the beginning of the war the people of Paris were requested to make a patriotic display of flags, and the response was a very general one. For a long time the enthusiasm continued at fever heat. Everybody displayed a flag. Now the flag has disappeared and the few remaining ones are soiled, worn and torn. In a trip through the city recently we noticed a large number of sadly soiled and drooping flags, but more conspicuous than that was the utter absence of any kind of flag in hundreds of homes.

It does not necessarily imply a lack of patriotism upon the part of those whose homes are not decorated with the flag, but it looks like they should "hang the banner on the outer walls" and let the people see.

Let's all join in and renew the flag and make it a prominent piece of the decorative effect on homes and business houses. Where are those beautiful starry banners that floated so proudly from the flagstaffs on the court house, the Masonic Temple, the Odd Fellows building, the First National Bank skyscraper, the Government Building and a long list of others? Run 'em up and keep 'em there!

BY THE DOOR CALLED JOHN

Quaker Courtship In Which Woman Frankly Expressed Herself as Favoring Brother of Wooer.

A few weeks ago the Youth's Companion reported two or three strange and amusing courtships of New England tradition. A reader was moved to add another to the list—this time a Quaker one. In a small town, of which about half the population were Friends, two brothers, John and Joseph, shared a farm that adjoined the property of Sarah, a spinster in early middle life. Both brothers in their youth had been obvious suitors for Sarah's hand; but they were slow and silent, and neither ever reached the point of proposing. Then an enterprising and audacious young woman, who belonged to "the world's people," somehow extracted a proposal from Joseph—or dispensed with one—and married him. After several years of matrimony she died, leaving him with two little girls. As soon as propriety permitted he betook himself to his spinster neighbor's, and, according to local tradition, spoke thus:

"It is borne in upon me, Sarah, that thee would make an excellent wife."

"I have no leading to contradict thee, Joseph," replied the lady demurely.

"Also, Sarah, I believe thee competent to be an admirable mother."

"Thy judgment is to be respected, Joseph."

"Thy housekeeping is well esteemed, Sarah. The women say there is no better housekeeper in the place."

"I am assured thee would not listen to light gossip, Joseph."

"Then, Sarah, will thee marry me?"

"Nay, Joseph, I am not moved to consent. But—thhee may repeat thy kind words about me to thy brother John if thee thinks best."

"So that thee will enter the family, Sarah, and care for the household, I care not by which door thee comes in. I have no further inclination toward the married state for foolish reasons!"

"Whether my reasons are foolish or no, Joseph, I will only come if I am bidden by the door called John."

It was by the door called John that she was soon welcomed, to rule, gently and to order wisely a double family.

REALLY MORE THAN NEEDED

Youngster Asked God to Send Nice Cool Rain and a Deluge Flooded Fields of the Southwest.

We were living in the Southwest, For weeks and months we had no rain, relates a writer in the Country Gentleman. Every day big, promising-looking clouds rolled up, broke apart and drifted away. Streams were dried up, vegetation was burning up and life was well-nigh unbearable to man and beast. From 12 to 18 inches of sand and dust covered the highways; gnats made life hideous; heat parched our skin and throats. Rain was the only relief, and rain we did not get. Every night at bed-time four-year-old Robert on bended knees by his little white bed asked God: "Please don't forget to send a nice, cool rain."

One day the big, black clouds rolled up as usual, but we noticed that they were all fringed with green. Pretty soon a big wind sprang up and leveled small houses and barns, broke down trees, scattered chickens, ducks, straw and haystacks all over the country. A big half followed the wind, and then came rain—a perfect deluge! Streams rose clear out of their banks and the water came creeping over the fields and toward the houses and cattle pens; pretty soon it had flooded the yard and was nearly to the door.

Small Robert took a survey of the situation, and then in a small, frightened voice said: "Daddy, don't blame it all on me. God had ought to knowed a small kid like me didn't need such a awful big rain."

Some Old Children's Books. John Newbury set the fashion of publishing juvenile story books about 1756, retaining Goldsmith and others to write them, and in the list of such publications it is somewhat startling to come across "Tom Jones" and "Joseph Andrews"—"abridged for the amusement of youth," it is true, but not at all in the direction one would expect, says the Boston Globe. There was, however, quite literally, powder in the jam, even with Newbury's publications. The worthy publisher was the proprietor of the famous Dr. James Powder, and contrived to introduce ingenious references to this profitable sideline into his book. Thus in "Goody-Two-Shoes" the heroine's father dies miserably because "selved with a fever in a place where Dr. James' Powder was not to be had."

Use of Cement. Cement was first put on the market in England. It was still being imported into this country in 1875. It was at this time that the use of Portland cement in the United States came into commercial prominence. When the product was first placed on the market in competition with that which was being imported from England and Germany, a good price was demanded. However, production in excess of demand soon resulted and it proved a big factor in the price cutting that followed.

Reported. "Harold asked me point blank if that beautiful color of yours was natural, and, of course, dear, I had to tell the truth and say no."

"Of course, you did. He taxed me with it, and I told him I had borrowed it of you."

U. S. NAVY NEEDS MEN.

The Navy Department authorizes enlistment in all branches of the service, absolute maximum, until further orders, in order to get men to man our ships in use and building. Our Navy is carrying men, food, etc., across, and fighting submarines.

The Navy offers education along different lines, and physical development.

Pay is from $32.60 to $129.00 per month, not including clothing, board, medical attention, and this pay does not stop until discharged.

All enlistments are for duration of the war only. Men of draft age are accepted if they obtain release from their draft board. Age for enlistment is 18 to 35.

If you are thinking of helping Uncle Sam clean up the Kaiser and his followers, it may pay you to call at some of the following recruiting offices and investigate, or just write for any information you care for:

Postoffices, Paducah, Owensboro, Ashland, Fayette Bank, Lexington, 21 Kentucky Post Building, Covington, 412 S. Fourth street, Louisville.

Four thousand young Kentuckians have been enlisted in this branch the past 12 months, at Louisville. If you know of any of these boys, you can find that they are well pleased with the branch they selected.

IF I WERE A FARMER.

If I were a farmer I would keep at hand a few reliable medicines for minor ailments that are not so serious as to require the attention of a physician such as Chamberlain's Co. & Diarrhea Remedy for bowel complaints.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs, colds and croup.

Chamberlain's Liniment for sprains, bruises and rheumatic pains.

Chamberlain's Tablets for stomach troubles, biliousness and constipation.

This would require an outlay of only $1.10. By having these articles at hand it would often save the trouble of a trip to town in the busiest season or in the night, and would enable me to treat slight ailments as soon as they appear, and thereby avoid the more serious diseases that so often follow.

GERMANY FURNISHES THE PROOF.

Every development since our entry into the war has justified and proved the wisdom, the imperative necessity of American's participation. Every German success and every German failure have shown how necessary to our own welfare and peace, how necessary to the safety and peace of the world the defeat of Germany is. Every foot of ground Germany has been forced to give up, every foot of land she has seized, have demonstrated the absolute necessity of defeating that sinister, intolerable thing called Germanism.

ST. LOUIS REPUBLIC NAILS GERMAN LIES.

German propagandists have been busy since the entry of the United States into the war. Falsehoods of every character have been spread over every section of the country with the idea of abusing the confidence of the American people. So persistent has been the circulation of these carefully moulded pro-German lies that an official exposure of them has been issued as a pamphlet, entitled "The Kaiserite in America," by the Committee on Public Information, 8 Jackson Place, Washington, D. C. A copy of this pamphlet may be had free if inquiry will be directed to the Committee.

Tales have been current about interned German prisoners being fed five meals a day, about Red Cross supplies being sold to shopkeepers by dishonest officials, by criminal waste of food at training camps and many other like falsehoods either designed to discourage volunteer Red Cross work and the loyal efforts of housekeepers to save food or calculated to create a troublesome distrust of the Government.

The circulation of these stories is often due to the folly of a citizen who wishes to appear to have "inside information" and who either innocently or intentionally starts a lie that rapidly grows worse as it spreads.

A collection of such lies and their refutation has been made by the St. Louis Republic. A hundred of them are included in "The Kaiserite in America."

THIS FIREMAN'S
IS LOT EASIER

Louisville Railroad Man Tells How Tanlac Put His System Back In Shape.

Marshall I. Smith, 1214 South Shelby street, Louisville, Ky., is a locomotive fireman on a run out of Louisville and his job is one which requires a lot of strength and good health. He didn't used to have it and it was hard for him to keep the fires going in his engine, but he says his work is easy since Tanlac put his system back in shape.

"I used to feel so bad that it was hard for me to even climb onto the engine, and, of course, my work of keeping the fires going in the engine was mighty difficult," Mr. Smith said.

"My system was all out of order. My digestion was bad and my appetite was so poor that I didn't eat much. I didn't sleep well either.

"Well, I started taking Tanlac and it surely did put my system back in good condition. My appetite has come back fine. I eat good now, too, and have gained in strength so much that my firing job is easy for me.

"My wife has suffered from rheumatism for quite a while and is just starting to take Tanlac. Rheumatism Treatment."

If you don't feel right take Tanlac and get your system back in shape. Tanlac is purely vegetable, it tones up and invigorates the entire system. Tanlac is just the thing to take this spring. You can get Tanlac at Varden & Son's. (adv)

TURN TO BOWDITCH

Book by Salem Man, Long Dead, Has Become War Factor.

Young Officers of the United States Merchant Marine Are Poring Over "American Navigator," Famed as Sailor's Guide.

No American of today is exercising so potent an influence in the country's present extraordinary development in seagoing as Nathaniel Bowditch, who has been in his grave for more than eighty years, and whose name is unrecognized by millions of his fellow countrymen.

Persons who follow the rise and decline of the "best sellers" among books may be surprised to know that Bowditch was the author of one of the best-selling books ever produced, which has run through hundreds of editions, in all civilized languages, has been selling steadily for more than a hundred years, and since the great war began has been in greater demand than ever.

This book is known as the "American Practical Navigator." It is the guide of every keel that sails the Seven Seas, and is familiarly known to sailors the world over as "Bowditch," or "Bowditch's Epitome."

With America's entry into the war, the demand for Bowditch's "Navigator" became so great that a special edition of the book was published to meet it, by the United States hydrographic office, notwithstanding that editions had been as recently issued as in 1916, and also in 1914. For a time it was difficult to obtain a copy of the "Navigator." Since the appearance of the 1917, edition, however, all demands for the book can be met.

The increased demand for the book was caused chiefly by the stimulus given the study of navigation among young Americans by the training service of the United States shipping board, which is schooling hundreds of young men to serve as officers on the ships of the new merchant marine.

Bowditch was called by his contemporaries "an intellectual prodigy." He has since been termed "the Ocean Pathfinder." On receipt of the news of his death, in 1836, vessels in the chief ports of the world half-masted their flags. His book was then said by one eulogist to be "in practical utility second to no work of man ever published."

Of the personality of the man who achieved this great distinction very little is recalled today, in spite of the vital influence of his work in the present development of his country.

He was born in the old shipping town of Salem, Mass., in 1770. His people were poor, and he was obliged to leave school when but twelve, to serve in a ship chandler's shop.

There, while selling rope and marlinspikes, the youth fell in with men from far voyages. One was an old British sailor, who taught the lad navigation. Algebra so fascinated the boy he "could not sleep after a first glance at it."

It chanced that about this time a privateer came into Salem with the booty of a cruise that included a library of philosophical works, the property of Dr. Richard Kirwan, an Irish scientist, taken from a freighter captured off the Irish coast.

The books were sold at auction, and bought by Salem citizens as the nucleus of a library. Young Bowditch had access to them, read them eagerly, and copied most of them for further use.

When twenty-two, Bowditch made his first voyage to sea, as captain's clerk on a Salem ship. He sailed nine years in all, one voyage being on the Astrea, the first American ship to visit Manila harbor.

Every man in the Astrea's crew soon learned they had a genius among them. Bowditch looked the scholar and devoted many hours a day to study. He made every man aboard a navigator, and it was said, each of them "could work a lunar observation as well as Sir Isaac Newton."

When not studying young Bowditch paced the deck in deep thought. At such times nobody spoke to him, knowing that in due course he would dash into his cabin to set down the results of his concentration, as he rarely failed to do.

It is related that one day the ship was attacked by a privateer, and Bowditch was assigned to pass powder from the magazine. The gun crews got no powder, and investigation showed Bowditch seated on a powder keg, working out a difficult problem on his slate.

On arriving in Boston harbor from a voyage in 1802, Bowditch attended the commencement at Harvard college, and was surprised to find himself named for an honorary degree as bachelor of arts, his work as an authority on navigation having won him recognition.

Retiring from the sea in 1804, Bowditch became president of a fire insurance company. He declined professorships at Harvard, the Military academy at West Point and the University of Virginia.

His life was devoted largely to perfecting his "Navigator," and to the translation from the French and annotation of La Place's "Celestial Mechanics," a colossal work on astronomy showing great erudition by the translator, but now known only to a few astronomers.

Even a Stranger.

"An endorsement for office means little."

DO YOU SLEEP WELL?

To be at his best a man must have sound, refreshing sleep. When wakeful and restless at night he is in no condition for work or business during the day. Wakefulness is often caused by indigestion and constipation, and is quickly relieved by Chamberlain's Tablets. Try a dose of these tablets and see how much better you feel with a clear head and good indigestion.
